The Jews teach that there are 613 commandments and of course as a Christian I am not according to the New Testament to follow all of them as a means of Righteousness or salvation .

Romans 3:20 – “Therefore no one will be justified in His sight by works of the law. For the law merely brings awareness of sin.”

Romans 3:31 – “Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.”

Romans 6:14 – “For sin shall no longer have dominion over you, because you are not under law but under grace.”

John 1:17 – “For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.”

Galatians 2:16 – “Yet we know that a man is not justified by works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.”

Galatians 3:10 – “For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, ‘Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them.’”

Galatians 3:24 – “So the law became our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith.”

Colossians 2:14 – “Having canceled the charge of our legal indebtedness, which stood against us and condemned us; he has taken it away, nailing it to the cross.”

The one who number them was Rabbi Simlai in the Babylonian Talmud (tractate Makkot 23b), Rabbi Simlai is recorded as saying: “Six hundred and thirteen commandments were revealed to Moses: 365 prohibitions, like the days of the year, and 248 positive commandments, corresponding to the limbs of the human body” later systematized by medieval Jewish scholars such as Maimonides (Sefer ha-Mitzvot), who categorized and ordered the commandments, and by others like Simeon Kahira, Saadia Gaon, and Gershom ben Judah, who also attempted to list them. Over time, the 613 became a widely accepted framework in Jewish law (Halakha), though scholars note that the exact list and classification have varied.

But I want us to look at them not as a means to follow them for righteousness or salvation but to know the burden those who try to follow has to carry to have in thier minds righteousness and salvation.
